INSURANCE REQUIREMENTS FOR A RENTED TRAILER

Please give this page to your insurance broker

This trailer is owned by K&K Enterprises Ltd. and rented to the customer named below. It is plated and registered by K&K. Before we can release it, we need a Certificate of Insurance from your broker showing the coverage below.

SECTION 1 — EQUIPMENT BEING RENTED

CUSTOMER / COMPANY	UNIT #	AGREED VALUE
VIN 1 (LEAD)	VIN 2 (PUP)
RENTAL START DATE	PICKUP LOCATION

SECTION 2 — COVERAGE REQUIRED

THE TWO THINGS BROKERS MOST OFTEN GET WRONG

1. K&K Enterprises Ltd. must be named as LOSS PAYEE on the physical damage coverage — not just as a certificate holder.
2. K&K Enterprises Ltd. must be named as ADDITIONAL INSURED on the liability coverage.

1. Physical damage on the trailer. All perils / comprehensive and collision coverage on the trailer described above, for its full replacement value or the agreed value shown in Section 1, whichever is greater. This is the coverage that pays to repair or replace the trailer itself.
2. K&K named as Loss Payee. K&K Enterprises Ltd. must be shown as Loss Payee on that physical damage coverage. K&K owns the trailer, so any payout for damage to it must be payable to K&K.
3. Third party liability. Commercial automobile liability covering the operation of the trailer, with a minimum limit of $2,000,000 per occurrence.
4. K&K named as Additional Insured. K&K Enterprises Ltd. must be shown as Additional Insured on the liability coverage, in respect of the operation of the rented trailer.
5. Notice of cancellation. The certificate should provide for notice to K&K if the policy is cancelled, not renewed, or materially changed.
6. Term. Coverage must be in place before the trailer is picked up and must remain in place for the whole rental, until the trailer is returned to K&K.

SECTION 3 — CERTIFICATE HOLDER DETAILS

Use these exact details on the certificate. The trailer cannot be released until we have it in hand.
