RENTAL REPAIR POLICY

Breakdowns and repairs during the rental period

CUSTOMER / COMPANY

UNIT #

BEFORE EVERY TRIP

It is the customer's sole responsibility to carry out a daily pre-trip inspection of all equipment.

If equipment breaks down or fails during the rental period, the process below is the customer's sole remedy.

THE PROCESS

- 1. Report it first. Take a photo and text it, with a description of the problem and the unit number, to 1-403-775-0571. Say whether you want to bring the equipment to a K&K shop or to a third-party repair facility.
- 2. Repairs at a K&K shop. K&K covers the total cost of repairs, including parts and labour, where the equipment is returned to one of our shops.
- 3. Repairs at a third-party shop. K&K reimburses parts only. K&K does not cover labour on any repair carried out at a third-party shop, and no repair will be reimbursed unless K&K approved it in writing before the work started.
- 4. Wear and consumable items. The following are the customer's cost in all cases, wherever the work is done: tires and tire repair; brake shoes, linings, drums and hardware; lights, lenses, wiring and reflective tape; air lines, glad hands and fittings; mud flaps and hangers; tarps, tarp motors and tarp components; hopper seals, rollers and cables; ladders, catwalks and hardware; and any other consumable or wear item.
- 5. Damage or abuse. If the failure or breakdown results from damage or abuse by the driver or any third party, sections 2 and 3 do not apply and the customer is responsible for the full cost of repair, at a K&K shop or anywhere else.
- 6. No report, no reimbursement. Failure to follow section 1 results in no reimbursement being given.
- 7. Submitting invoices. All invoices submitted for reimbursement must be sent to rental@kandkent.ca within thirty (30) days of the repair.
- 8. Cleanliness. Make sure the trailer is reasonably clean if you are bringing the equipment back for repair.
- 9. Set-off. K&K reserves the right to deduct reimbursements from the next monthly rental period.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT
